Students Circular

It is noticed that some students were likely to involve in a strike, leading to disruption of Academic activities. The students should be well aware that they are violating the Code of Conduct of the college by involving in such activities. Any student found instigating such activities will be penalised as per the college rules and the T.C (Transfer Certificate) will be issued on the spot without any enquiry. Therefore students are advised to refrain from involving in any such misbehavioural attitude.
